This is an informed consent that explains the expectations and risks associated with the Mei Zen Cosmetic Acupuncture System™. Please be advised that this treatment is NOT a surgical procedure.

The purpose of Cosmetic Acupuncture is to create a younger and more vibrant appearance. And acupuncture treatment using the Mei Zen Cosmetic Acupuncture System™ involves the insertion of acupuncture needles into the face, neck and body in order to reduce the visible signs of aging. According to the theory of Traditional Chinese Medicine there are meridians or pathways of Qi (energy) that flow throughout the entire body. Therefore, it is possible for Cosmetic Acupuncture to address the energy of the entire body making it not merely a "cosmetic" treatment. Your complexion reflects the result of the state of Qi in your entire body.

As with all Traditional Chinese Medicine treatments, like acupuncture, the Mei Zen Cosmetic Acupuncture System™ involves the patient in a gradual, healthful process that I, Jennifer Myers, L.Ac., customize for each individual. Your treatments may include other modalities in conjunction with the acupuncture and will be explained if they are required for your care. The Mei Zen Cosmetic Acupuncture System™ is in no way analogous or a substitute for a surgical facelift.

In receiving cosmetic facial acupuncture, you may experience some of the following changes:

- * Improved muscle tone
- * Decreased puffiness around the eyes
- * Firming of sagging skin
- * Elimination or reduction of fine wrinkles
- * Even skin tone and improved lustre of complexion

Alternative Treatments: Treatment for sagging skin of the jowl and neck, wrinkles, excess skin above and below the eyes, and excess puffiness under the eyes may be corrected by various methods including, but not limited to, surgical facelift, chemical peels, liposuction, injections, surgical threading and laser treatments. Risks and potential complications including death, severe scarring, nerve damage, sloughing of skin, lumpiness, swelling, allergic reaction, and permanent discoloration are associated with these alternative forms of treatment.

Risks of Cosmetic Acupuncture: In undertaking any procedure, it is important that you understand the risks involved with receiving the Mei Zen Cosmetic Acupuncture System™. Although most patients who receive this technique do not experience complication, the potential side effects or risks are listed below:

- A) Bleeding and Bruising: As with acupuncture in general, when a needle is removed some minor bleeding may occur. This is normal and usually will not leave a bruise. Occasionally, a bruise or hematoma may appear. With bruising, it is important that you wear sunscreen when going outside. Topical and internal remedies to address bruising will be discussed.
- B) Infection: Infections at the needle site is very rare after an acupuncture treatment because the needles are sterile. If you suspect infection at the needling site (ie redness, swelling or warm to touch), call me. Additional treatment or referral to M.D. may be necessary.
- C) Damage to deeper structure: (Not applicable in Mei Zen System) In certain systems, deeper structure such as blood vessels, nerves and muscles are rarely damaged during the course of a facial acupuncture treatment. If this does occur, the injury maybe temporary or permanent.
- D) Asymmetry: All facial structure are naturally asymmetrical. Results may vary from side to side due to the natural asymmetry, previous injuries on one side of the body or severity of symptoms from one side or the other.
- E) Nerve Injury: Injury to the motor or sensory nerves very rarely results from facial acupuncture treatments. Nerve injuries may cause temporary or permanent loss of facial movements and feeling. Such injuries may improve of time. Injury to the sensory nerves of the face, neck and ear regions may cause temporary or, more rarely, permanent numbness. Painful nerve scarring is extremely rare.
- F) Needle shock: Needle shock is a rare complication that can happen during any acupuncture treatment. If you feel faint or shaky during the treatment, please let me know immediately.
- G) Allergic reaction: In rare cases, local allergies to topical preparations have been reported. Systemic reactions that are more serious may occur to herbs using during an acupuncture treatment. Skin testing is done prior to application of any herbal preparation. Allergic reactions may require additional treatment or discontinuation of the treatment.
- H) Delayed Healing: Delayed healing is a rare complication. Smoking and certain health condition such as diabetes, chronic fatigue syndrome, to name a few may delay the healing response of any of the aforementioned risks.
- I) Unsatisfactory results: It is important to understand that you are not having a surgical procedure. The alternatives, risks and comparisons of surgical procedures versus acupuncture have been discussed and outlined in this document. Please discuss any questions with me before treatment begins.

Long Term Effects: Following your cosmetic acupuncture treatments, changes in facial appearance may occur as the result of the normal process of aging, weight loss or gain, sun exposure, stress, illness or other circumstances not related to acupuncture. It has been explained that following lifestyle and dietary instruction may enhance the longevity of the cosmetic acupuncture treatment. Additional, future treatments may be necessary to maintain the results.

Health Insurance: As with most cosmetic procedures, most health insurance does not cover the cost of the procedure or complication resulting from the procedure. Please contact your insurance if you have any questions about coverage.

Expectations and Guarantee: It has been explained that Cosmetic Acupuncture is not a surgical procedure. My questions regarding longevity of results, expected changes in my facial appearance have been answered. Although good results are expected, there is not guarantee or warranty either expressed or implied on the results that may be obtained.

Financial Responsibilities: In addition to the fee for the cosmetic acupuncture treatment, herbal or skin care product recommendations may be made. The cost of herbs and/or skin care items is not included in the cosmetic acupuncture fee.

Disclaimer: Informed consent documents are used to communicate information about the proposed procedure along with disclosure of risks and alternative forms of treatment. They are not intended to define or serve as the standard of acupuncture. However, informed consent documents should not be considered all-inclusive in defining other methods of care and potential risks. Standards of acupuncture are determined on the basis of all the facts involved in an individual case and are subject to change as scientific knowledge and technology advance and as practice patterns evolve. I may provide you with additional or different information that is based on the facts in your particular case and the present state of knowledge within the field of acupuncture.
